Amol S. Navathe, MD, PhD

Summary

Amol Navathe, MD, PhD, is a practicing physician, health care policy and delivery expert, and entrepreneur with a distinguished background in policy research, federal policy service, and healthcare technology. He is an Associate Professor of Health Policy and Medicine and a Senior Fellow at the Leonard Davis Institute for Health Economics at the University of Pennsylvania. He serves as the Vice Chairman and Commissioner of the Medicare Payment Advisory Commission (MedPAC), a non-partisan agency that advises the US Congress and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid on Medicare policy. He is also a co-founder of Embedded Healthcare (now Clarify Health), a health care technology company that brings behavioral economics solutions to improving affordability and quality.

He is a leading expert on behavioral economics, alternative payment models such as bundled payments, and is one of the key architects of the nation's comparative effectiveness research strategy. His work on advanced health data analytics and technology to improve healthcare delivery has been implemented at numerous large health systems. In addition to coverage by numerous leading journals such as The New England Journal of Medicine, The Journal of the American Medical Association, and Health Affairs, and media outlets such as The New York Times and Vox, Dr. Navathe's work led to the founding of Health Care: The Journal of Delivery Science and Innovation.

As a practicing physician, Dr. Navathe has a personal view of the complexities of health care financing and the resulting hardships. Dr. Navathe is dedicated to transforming health care delivery for his patients, who provide him with great inspiration. He hopes his work will improve their lives and the lives of Americans nationwide.
